

Program in Contemporary
European Politics and Society
Harold James, Director

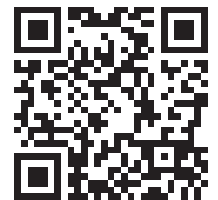

Shadow Elites:

How the World's New Influencers Challenge Democracy,
Government, and the Free Market in the United States,
Europe, and Beyond

Janine Wedel
George Mason University

Noon
Tuesday, December 4, 2012
219 Aaron Burr Hall

Janine Wedel, a university professor in the School of Public Policy at George Mason University, writes about issues of governing, corruption, foreign aid, and influence elites through the lens of a social anthropologist. A prolific author and winner of the 2001 Grawemeyer Award for Ideas Improving World Order, her books include the award-winning Shadow Elite: How the World's New Power Brokers Undermine Democracy, Government, and the Free Market (2009) and Collision and Collusion: The Strange Case of Western Aid to Eastern Europe (2001). A public intellectual, she has written for the New York Times, Financial Times, The Nation, and many other outlets. Ph.D. University of California, Berkeley.

For more information, contact Kathleen Allen, kballen@princeton.edu.
Visit the Program in Contemporary European Politics and Society on the Web at www.princeton.edu/eps or scan the QR code.
Cosponsored with the European Union Program.